

Reviews

Play

ON THE SHELF

Disquiet*, by Julia Leigh
$19.95
Reviewer:
Jennifer Scott

Disquiet draws the reader into an unsettling, dream-like world through the actions of its damaged characters and the sparse use of dialogue. A woman, Olivia, has left her abusive husband in Australia and escaped with her two children to her family home, an austere French chateau. The story deals with some horrific themes, building a sense of foreboding and leaving the reader unsettled.

IN YOUR EAR

Sublime
Mozart, works for clarinet*
$26
Reviewer: Ida
Chionh

Sublime Mozart, works for clarinet, features Paul Dean on clarinet, with The Queensland Orchestra conducted by Guillaume Tourniare, and the Grainger Quartet. Mozart's fondness for the clarinet is evident and Paul Dean is the perfect performer. Sublime Mozart is a fitting dedication to founding benefactor of the Melba Foundation, Dame Elisabeth Murdoch.